

Wasatch commissioner, state educator correctly identified

Two winners of elections were incorrectly identified in the pictures run on page 9 Wednesday.

In Wasatch County, Larry Duke (R) won a two-year seat on the Wasatch County Commission, beating out Reg Tadd the incumbent. The two candidate's pictures were inadvertently switched. Duke garnered 2,224 votes while Tadd had 1,181.

Walter Talbot did not win the District 7 seat on the State School Board. Donald G. Christensen won that race 18,670 to 15,924 for Talbot. Talbot's picture appeared on page 9 and he was identified as the
